

CODE OF ETHICS FOR CDF MEMBERS

To be eligible for membership in the Canadian Dancesport Federation the candidate will have to comply with the Code of Ethics as set hereafter:

Integrity and Competence

- A member must treat other professionals, students and persons, whether they are CDF members or not, with integrity and respect.
- A member must take reasonable steps to maintain and enhance the knowledge, skills and personal qualities necessary to offer a competent quality of service and encourage public respect.

Advertising and Solicitation

- A member must not use false advertising. For example : < Learn from the Best >. He/she may advertise such things as qualifications, success in championships etc. – but not something that cannot be measured. He/she must not mislead the uninformed.
- A member should refrain from soliciting other members' students.

Independence and Integrity

- A member holding a CDF Adjudicator's Licence must not contact organizers and promise to bring students to a competition in exchange for a position on the Adjudicating Panel, or a position on the Adjudicating Panel for a person working in his/her studio.

Impartiality

- A member holding a CDF Adjudicator's Licence should strive to ensure that his/her conduct, both in and out of the Competition Ballroom, maintains and enhances confidence in his/her fairness.

DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS

Complaints

- CDF will investigate and rule upon any question or complaint regarding the behaviour of any member of CDF within the guidelines of the Association rules.
- In receipt of a complaint, the CDF shall inform the individual complained against by mail. He/she shall have the right to answer such charges.
